

25 Things About Me (Well, 23 About Me and 2 About Me and Green Thumb)

Have you heard about this facebook phenomenon? We've asked some of our volunteers, people who make a real difference at Green Thumb, to tell us 25 things about themselves. The catch? They had to include two things about Green Thumb.

Natasha, a member of GTT Review, starts us off. We'll be hearing from our other volunteers in coming issues. Watch out!

Natasha

1. It is really hard for me to buy a present and then keep it a secret from the person I bought it for.
2. I REALLY hate doing dishes.
3. I hallucinate and see a little brown bird when I am sick, tired or stressed.
4. I love my apartment.
5. I think folding laundry in the sunlight is idyllic.
6. I find it hard to imagine myself in a location without seeing an outfit to go along with it.
7. My part time/summer job in High School was lifeguard/swimming instructor.
8. I read a book a week.
9. I knit a hat and sewed a shirt this past weekend.
10. I have a B.A. with a major in English and Theatre and look forward to going back to school someday.
11. I studied at Oxford University on an exchange for a semester and then backpacked around the UK for a month.
12. I wish I could live in a cabin in the woods and be a pioneer.
13. I am an eco nut, but I hate energy efficient light bulbs because the light they give off is cool not warm.
14. I have been swimming with dolphins, sharks, barracudas, and stingrays (not all at the same time).
15. I was one of the first girls in Canada to get the Chief Scout Award.
16. I change into comfy clothes as soon as I get home from work everyday.
17. I don't feel guilty that I don't go out and see people often, but I feel as though I should feel guilty.
18. I lived in Japan for 18 months and I have been an ESL Teacher for more than 3 years.
19. I took dance lessons for over a decade but I hate following the steps. I prefer to "freestyle."
20. I don't have cable.
21. I am terrible at math.
22. I wish I was less cynical and ironic.
23. I am a mermaid.

24. The first Green Thumb Show I saw was the dress rehearsal for New Canadian Kid.
25. I am involved with Green Thumb because there is nothing like theatre. It is a great way to build community and to use and share my love of the arts.
